Hi Everyone!

I will be conducting a baseball clinic over the winter school break for kids of all ages. We will cover every facet of the game; Hitting, pitching, fielding, throwing, base running and the mental side of the game throughout the week along with a simulated game at the end of each day.

This is a great opportunity to get the fundamentals down before tryouts start. If you haven't started yet then the time is now! My goal is for everyone to be as prepared as they can be leading into the baseball season...

I will have two groups.... One is for 12 years and under/Little League and the other is for 13 years and older/Modified/High school

They will both be 5 days starting Monday 15th - Friday 19th.

You will have the option of coming random days throughout the week although you must commit to at least 3 days of it.

You can contact me via email mrbaseball1714@yahoo.com or my phone (315)289-3197 to reserve a spot or If you have any questions/concerns.

Minimum 4 players and Max 20 players for each group

Also feel free to pass this info along to anyone you think might be interested!
